All-State Audition Scholarship Program

The John & Dorothy Jarvis Music Education Foundation All State Audition scholarship was created to provide opportunities for minority and underprivileged students who show desire, potential and commitment to auditioning for All-State who otherwise would not participate in private lessons due to financial limitations. A minimum of 6 total students will be selected from FBA Districts 13 and 14. Students selected through the application process will receive free weekly 30-minute lessons starting the first week in June and will conclude following All State Auditions. Lessons will be focused on All-State audition preparation. All Lessons will be taken at:

Music Man	Music Man Port St. Lucie
179 North Jog Road	950 SW Bayshore Blvd
West Palm Beach, Florida 33413	Port St Lucie, FL 34983

Each school's Band Director will be permitted to nominate one candidate from their school. The candidate should be selected based on:

- The candidate's potential to make the All-State Band.
- The candidate's willingness to come to the Music Man studio located on Jog Road or Pt. St. Lucie for weekly lessons.
- The likelihood that the candidate would otherwise be unable to participate in private lessons due to financial limitations.
- Minority Status and Financial Need

Once selected by the Band Director, the candidate should:

1. Fill out the application completely by hand using blue or black ink.
2. Complete in the provided space an essay directed to the prompt: "How individual private lessons will benefit me?" The essay must be hand written in the applicant's handwriting and must fit within the provided form. Typed essays will not be considered.
3. Mail the application to:

Jarvis Music Foundation
All State Audition Scholarship
2309 North Dixie Highway
West Palm Beach, FL 33407

Or by email to:
